"QUITE SIMPLY, LIFE IS BETTER WHEN YOU LIVE IN A SPACE YOU LOVE"

— from Brian Gluckstein:
The Art of Home

A gallery wall gives a homeowner's notable art collection even greater impact.

FALL'S Must-have DESIGN BOOK

Brian Gluckstein might be Canada's best-known designer, but most fans are likely more familiar with his popular furniture and bedding collections for Hudson's Bay than his high-end interiors. His debut book, Brian Gluckstein: The Art of Home, is set to change that. The lush hardcover offers an exclusive peek inside 10 private homes he designed for top-tier clients in Canada and abroad, including a modern mountain retreat outside Aspen, Colo., and Brian's own Toronto house. For each, he drops valuable insights, such as how to decorate with just one colour and why you shouldn't be afraid to put bookshelves in a bathroom. "Good design is not a privilege; everyone is entitled to it," he states in the intro. We couldn't agree more. Figure 1 Publishing, HC 2018, 256 pages, $45.

HOT LOOK

Diamonds Are Forever

The Zircon table lamp by Jean-Louis Deniot for Baker exemplifies what the acclaimed French designer is known for: aristocratic pieces with sophisticated silhouettes that nod to the natural world. A bronze base and diamond-shaped glass body filled with glass beads are quietly glamorous — think of it as jewelry for your room.

29½" h. x 19" diam.
Starting at $3,990.
